- Summer camp schedule
- Donuts in the drop off lines w flyers at the beginning of the year for freshman parents.
- We had 132 members for the 2025-2026 school year total.
There were 196 members for the 2024-2025 school year.

05'26 Agenda

- Elections, voting in any new members
- Setting summer meeting dates--fireworks support
- Setting strategic planning dates for summer. These are outside of regular meetings. It is where we will set goals with objectives for the year. It is best done over a few days close together a few hours at a time. An example is Monday work on membership goals for 2 hours. Tuesday: wrap up membership goals--30 mins, 2 hours spent on programming for MBC. Wednesday wrap up programming goals---30 mins, 2 hours spent on fundraising.

Meeting convened at about 7:05 when Tara Spence joined us.

There was discussion over how roles are served, what has been done over the last year, and how Andrew has championed a small town feel to showing up at all the games.

Erin Bearinger has resigned from the Mustang Booster Club via email resignation. We accept her resignation as secretary from the board.

1. Fireworks discussion, getting Adam up to speed from Andrew. Jay to confirm amount that MBC has kept from fundraising efforts.
2. New officers were elected.
  - a. Adam Walters - President
  - b. Jeff Evans - President Elect
  - c. Jay Reiff - Treasurer
  - d. Randi Scott - Membership Chair
  - e. Tara Spence - Secretary
  - f. Kelsey Cunningham - Fundraising Chair

Adam Walters made a motion to approve all, Jay and Kelsey both seconded the motion. Unanimous approval for all positions for 2026-2027 school year.
